Here For You Always
A message to our PSCCU members

We find ourselves in unprecedented times with people around our country, and the world having to face such hardships as limited income, to layoffs, to the coronavirus directly affecting them and loved ones.

Puget Sound Cooperative Credit Union remains strong and is here for you during the good times, and during times of struggle.

Since early March, the Credit Union has taken a number of measures to ensure the health, safety and overall well-being of our staff and members has been, and continue to be our number one priority, making adjustments to our operations and branch structure as we navigate the ever-changing waters of the coronavirus pandemic. And with the reopening of most of our branches back to their regular business hours, we have put additional measures in place to foster a healthy and socially-responsible environment for all who work in our branches or visit them.

Through all the dips and turns over the past few months, PSCCU remains a well-capitalized, strong, and solid financial institution, continuing to serve our members just as we always have. Additionally, our members' deposits remain safeguarded and insured up to $250,000 by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA).

While we have never experienced anything like this before, we have been and remain committed to doing all we can to take care of our staff and our members without skipping a beat as much as possible. And we thank all of our staff and members for continuing to be so understanding and accommodating as things have changed and we adjust to a "new normal".

We wish you and your loved ones health and peace of mind at this time, and look forward to continuing to serve you today, tomorrow and always.

In Solidarity,
Your PSCCU Team
